Education

American Academy of Dramatic Arts
245 West 52nd Street, New York City

MARIE MEYER, Business Manager, American Academy of Dramatic Arts, advised that records reflected Mr. de MILLE had attended that institute for two six month semesters from 1899 to 1900. She stated that the information contained on the record was limited to the above and that there was no one who would recall Mr. de MILLE.

Employment

Deceased
CHARLES CONKLIN, Bookkeeper, The Lambs Club, 130 West 44th Street, New York City, stated that CHARLES FROHMAN, DAVID FROHMAN and DAVID BELASCO had been members of that club during the period Mr. de MILLE was an active member and that they are all dead. He stated that he believes JESSE L. LASKY is now living in Hollywood, California. He further advised that although Mr. de MILLE is still a member of that club, he, Mr. de MILLE, has not been an active member since 1917.

CONRAD NAGEL and JAMES E. MEIGHAN, both members of the Lambs Club advised, when interviewed at the Lambs Club, that Mr. de MILLE had been associated with CHARLES FROHMAN, DANIEL FROHMAN, his mother, Mrs. HENRY C. de MILLE, DAVID BELASCO, and JESSE L. LASKY in New York City from about 1899 to 1912 at which time he moved to Hollywood, California. They stated that, although they had not been associated with Mr. de MILLE during the period of his employment in New York City, they believed it was common knowledge that Mr. de MILLE had been employed as set forth above.

Mr. NAGEL stated that he had started acting in moving pictures under the direction of Mr. de MILLE in 1920 and that he has known him as a personal friend and business associate since that time. He stated that he has met Mr. de MILLE'S brother, WILLIAM C. de MILLE and other members of Mr. de MILLE'S family occasionally during the time he was in California.

NY 123-10041

Mr. MEIGHAN stated that he had met Mr. de MILLE about 1915 and that his brother, THOMAS MEIGHAN, had worked with Mr. de MILLE for many years. He stated that he had met Mr. de MILLE'S brother on a few occasions but did not know other members of Mr. de MILLE'S family.

Mr. NAGEL and Mr. MEIGHAN both advised that Mr. de MILLE was respected by everyone who knew him and that he is a man of strong convictions. They stated that Mr. de MILLE has fought the Communist infiltration of the Film Industry for years and is completely loyal to the United States. They stated that they were not close associates of Mr. de MILLE'S family and did not know Mr. de MILLE'S nieces who reside in New York City.

Mr. NAGEL and Mr. MEIGHAN advised that they did not know how close Mr. de MILLE was to members of his family and that they had never discussed politics with the members of Mr. de MILLE'S family. They stated that it was their opinion that Mr. de MILLE and members of his family were all loyal United States citizens and that they had never heard anything to make them think otherwise.

Miss GLORIA SWANSON, 920 5th Avenue, New York City, advised that she had gone to work for Mr. de MILLE in 1917 and has been a close friend and business associate of his since that time. She stated that she thought it was common knowledge in the theatrical world that Mr. de MILLE during the early 1900's was associated with CHARLES FROHMAN, DANIEL FROHMAN, Mrs. HENRY C. de MILLE, DAVID BELASCO and JESSE L. LASKY.

Miss SWANSON stated that she realized the threat to the United States by the Communist Party as early as 1937 and that she has been fighting the Communists since that time. She stated that because of her concern regarding Communism she maintained a careful watch of her associates and soon learned who were loyal Americans. She stated Mr. de MILLE was a loyal American and that she would highly recommend Mr. de MILLE for a position of trust.

Miss SWANSON advised that she has met Mr. de MILLE'S brother and children on a few occasions when she was in California but that she had not discussed politics with them. She stated she believed they, Mr. de MILLE'S family were loyal Americans because she had never heard anything unfavorable concerning them and because Mr. de MILLE was completely loyal. Miss SWANSON stated that she had formed the opinion that there was a feeling of professional jealousy between Mr. de MILLE and his brother and that because of this Mr. de MILLE was not very closely associated with his brother or his brother's family.

LOIS WILSON, Radio and Television Actress, when interviewed at the home of Miss GLORIA SWANSON advised that she has known Mr. de MILLE casually since about 1919 and that she had worked with Mr. de MILLE'S brother at different times. She stated that she believes Mr. de MILLE and his brother are not as close as most brothers and that she believes they have conflicting personalities. She stated that she did not know any of the other members of Mr. de MILLE'S family. She stated that she has never discussed politics with Mr. de MILLE or his brother but that she believed them to be loyal Americans because of their reputations.

Doctor MARION STRANAHAN, MD, who specializes in psychiatry, 222 West 9th Street, New York City, advised that she treated Mrs. MARGARET de MILLE KAPLAN for a period of about three years. She stated Mrs. KAPLAN is a niece of Mr. CECIL B. de MILLE but that she does not believe Mrs. KAPLAN is closely associated with Mr. de MILLE. She stated that Mrs. KAPLAN had been ill but that she was cured now. She stated that she had never met Mr. de MILLE and that Mrs. KAPLAN rarely spoke of Mr. de MILLE. She stated that she did not know AGNES de MILLE PRUDE who is Mrs. KAPLAN'S sister.

Mr. CARLTON L. FISHEL, Trifari, Krussman, and Fishel, 16 East 40th Street, New York City, advised that he is acquainted with Mrs. MARGARET de MILLE KAPLAN but that he has never met Mrs. KAPLAN'S sister, AGNES PRUDE or other members of her family. He stated that Mrs. KAPLAN had remarked that her uncle was CECIL B. de MILLE but that she had never mentioned anything concerning Mr. de MILLE other than their relationship. He stated that he believed Mrs. KAPLAN is a person of good character, reputation, associates and loyalty.

AUSTIN KEOUGH, Chief, Legal Counsel, Paramount Pictures Theatres Corporation, 1501 Broadway, advised SA JOHN P. TUTTLE, JR. that he has known and has been closely associated with Mr. de MILLE since approximately 1921. He stated he is a man of excellent character and reputation and a thoroughly loyal and intensely patriotic American citizen. He is a man of great ability, a widely read and an intelligent person who has made a success in the banking and real estate field as well as in the motion picture industry. He advised that Mr. de MILLE is a strong and reasonable man and one whom he would recommend for any position involving trust and confidence. Mr. KEOUGH advised that he is acquainted with Mr. de MILLE's wife and brother, WILLIAM. He advised that they are of good reputation and nothing has ever come to his attention that would reflect unfavorably upon them in any manner. He stated that he was mainly acquainted with WILLIAM de MILLE when he, de MILLE, was in the movie industry about ten or fifteen years ago, but has not had too much contact with him since that time. He advised that he is not acquainted with WILLIAM de MILLE's two daughters. He stated that Mr. CECIL B. de MILLE was formerly associated with DAVID BEGLASCO, a number of years ago in New York on the legitimate stage, but since that time has confined his efforts to the motion picture industry in California.

Mr. ADOLPH ZUKOR, Chairman of the Board, Paramount Pictures Theatres Corporation, 1501 Broadway, advised SA JOHN P. TUTTLE, Jr. that he has been acquainted with Mr. de MILLE for the past forty years. He is an outstanding and successful businessman, a credit to his profession and a credit to anything which he undertakes. He is a responsible, competent man of unusual ability, a completely loyal American citizen and a person who takes great interest in civic affairs. Mr. ZUKOR advised that he is acquainted with Mr. de MILLE's family and stated that they are people of good character and reputation. He advised that Mr. de MILLE's brother, WILLIAM de MILLE, has two daughters and he knew them years ago when they were children, but has no present knowledge of them, other than the fact that they reside in New York. Mr. ZUKOR advised that from his knowledge and association with Mr. CECIL B. de MILLE he can highly recommend him to any
